AFTER TAKING THE Elixir! DOCTOR RIGHT'S

CELEBRATED REJUVENATING ELIXIR Prepared on the strictest Pharmaceutical principles by one of the ablest Chemists of the age.

THIS is altogether a new medicine, the result of modern discoveries in the vegetable kingdem, being an entirely new and abstract method of cure, brespective of all the old and worn out system a published by accomplished quacks to the suffering. Dr. Wright, well knowing the deception practised upon the uninitiated, fell it his duty at once to have this Elixir tested by the whole Med and Parentz, who, without even one dissenting the whole Med cal Faculty, who, without even one dissents voice, have give n in their adherence to its perfect and undivid control over the whole physical man when his frame has be reduced, and v hen all other medicines known to the Pharmac peria have been tried in rain. Long-thought years of patient investigation, and a nel desperantum determination have crowned the Ductor's efforts, and he now offers the Elixir to suf-fering humanity as the only thing that can cure the following

General Debili ty, Mental and Physical Depression, I meetility, Determination of Blood to the Head, Hysteria, General Irritability, Restless ess and Sleeplessness at Night, Absonce of Muscular Efficiency, Loss of Appetite,

As a Stimulant.

It is quite different from alcoholic preparations. It is not sub it set to reactions in any shape; it continues to exert its influence gradually and efficiently, as long as the least necessity exists for its presence. As a Female Medicines

It is equally power all and effective, and restores the equilibrium sooner and mafer than all the other medicines which for years have flooded the market, and which are only injurious, in place of assisting or reno vating the constitution for a very good reason, too, that they are only made from the effusions of minds gnorant of the Med cal profession altogether.

No Minerals! Dr. Wright thinks it well to stake his professional character on the fact, that no m inerals whatever form the least componer parts of the ingredien ts of his Rejuvenating Elixir—well know real proof of the virtue of American Oil in his hearing proper ties, from responsible men, who are a recrebing bought, that can be produced for any other medicine.

A Good Farm for Sale. A Good Farm for Sale.

We offer for sale the place on which G K Coleman has lived since 1835, and known as the Regers land, lying on Yellow Creek, Dickson county Tenn, partly on the stage road, within one raile of Williamsville, and three miles of the Nashville and Northwestern Railroad; a healthy, pleasant and beautiful part of Tennessee. Said land contains about the hundred and ninety acres—eighty acres cleared, and about fifty acres good land to clear; it is in a good state of cultivation, with comfortable dwelling houses, out houses, cto, etc. Also, two good orchards, and several never-falling springs of excellent water; well timbered, and can certainly be made one of the most desirable stock farms in this section of country. We promise a bargain in this land, and will sell for cash, or on time with interest For further information call on James McNeilly, who lives near said place, or the undersigned at Fowler's Landing, Tennesses river.

We have collected arms for the next to the veteran general points. nterest-we have collected some facts in relation to his services, which we present below: Col. Hardee entered the Military Academy at West Point as a cadet in 1834, and after four years of application to his studies graduated with henor, and was gazetted to the second regiment of dra-geons as a second lieutenant. Joining his regiment in Florida, he remained on duty with it for two years, after which time he was sent by the Secretary of War to the cavalry school at San Mur, about ry of War to the cavalry school at San Mur, about eighty leagues from Paris, where, for eighteen months, he was regularly attached to the cavalry department of the French army. Applying himself with great assiduity, he completed his studies, and returned to the United States a thorough cavalry officer, and bringing with him a letter of flattering recommendation from Marshall Oudinot to the Section of War.

Rejoining his regiment now stationed on the Wes-tern frontier, he was actively employed in defend-ing the advanced settlements from Indian depreda-tions, until he was called with many a gallant comrade, in the more exciting scenes of the Mexican ampaign. He crossed the Rio Grande with Gen. Taylor, having previously attained the rank of captain, and his company was the first to engage the memy. This engagement occurred at a place called Jurricitos, where, after vainly endsavoring with hi rallant little band to cut his way through the Mexican ranks, he was overwhelmed by superior num-bers, and taken prisoner. He remained a captive for reveral months, when he was exchanged in time TO THE BUSINESS MEN to take part in the bloody action of Monterey.

He accompanied Scott in his triumphant march from Vera Cruz to the City of Mexico, and took an active part in all these areas a second and took an active part in all those grand victories which marked the progress of the American army between those two points. At the close of the war, the brevet of Lieutenant Colonel was bestowed on him as a special recogni-tion of his bravery and usefulness in the stirring During the Administration of President Pierce, Congress created four new regiments, and he was promoted to the rank of Major in one of them. At this time he was detailed by the then Secretary of War, Col. Jefferson Davis, to prepare a system of actics better adapted to the uses of the infantry of the army than the antique and slow motioned method of Scott. After bringing his labors to a success inlissue, he was ordered to West Point as Com-mander of Cadets, for the purpose of putting his system into practical operation. The young solliers, it is said, became very partial to this new drill, and it has been so generally introduced into the army, and adopted by the volunteer companies of the country to such an extent, that in these exciting times Hardec's Tactics have became "like household words." LUNCOLN'S SPEECHES AND THE MOSTIFICATION OF res Farmers.-The Washington correspondent of the New York Express writes: The mortification of the Republicans at Mr. Lincoin's recent speeches increases with every fresh emanation from the Presidential tripod. They begin when it is too late to realize the truth of the allegations of the Union men of Illinois as to the inco tency of Lincoln for the Presidency. During the canvass, his supporters appealed triumphantly to his published speeches as proof of his ability. It now appears; as an spected at the time, that these speeches were carefully prepared by Mr. Just and other friends of Mr. Lincoln, revised and re-revised, polished and re-written, to such a degree that they who heard them on the stump could not recognize them in print. This was a part of the game of deception played by the Republicans upon the people, to foist a man upon the country for its chief magistrate who was never regarded, by his most intiacquaintances, as anything more than a jocose, curning, country politician. I am assured by those who know him well, that a more illiterate man it would be difficult to find, even among the self-made lawyers of Illinois. His chief characteristic is an nense "gift of gab," and a wonderful command of language, unaccompanied by a corresponding copiousness of ideas. The election of such a man at such a criss is undoubtedly the greatest evil that has ever befallen this country. But the mischief is done, and the only relief for the American people a

QUEEN VICTORIA'S APPEARANCE IN PARISAMENT. Queen Victoria, on the opening of Parliment, entered the chamber preceded by heralds embiazoned with gold, and followed by lords. "As usual (says the account,) her Majesty is perfectly at her case, quietly looking around the splendid chamber as if she sat alone in it, and the surrounding six hundred pair of eyes were bent on any one but her. As always on these great occasions, her Majesty wore robes of state, her dress being composed of silver tissue, striped with gold, and a superb train of crimson velvet, lined with ermine, and embroidered with gold, which was carried by the ladies in wait-ing and two pages. On her head was a demi-crown of brilliants, and with it were worn en suite a necklace, carrings, stomacher, and bracelets of dis-
